ORDER RE: THIRD AMENDED COMPLAINT AND REQUEST TO MODIFY MEDIATION DEADLINE

12
13 Now pending before the Court is Defendant's request to modify the parties' deadline to 14 participate in mediation in the Court-sponsored ADR Program due to the filing of Plaintiffs' Third
15 Amended Complaint ("TAC"). (Dkt. No. 62.) By Order of December 15, 2015, the Court granted 16 Defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings but granted Plaintiffs leave "to amend the 17 complaint to remedy the defects discussed" in the Order. (Dkt. No. 54 at 26.) Plaintiff has since 18 filed the TAC, which alleges nine causes of action, including a newly-alleged claim under 42
19 U.S.C. § 1986 and ten newly-added defendants, all individual officers with the Oakland Police 20 Department. (Dkt. No. 60.) The Court did not authorize Plaintiffs to add a new claim or new 21 parties. (Dkt. No. 54 at 26.) Plaintiffs did not seek leave to do so.

22 While the Second Amended Complaint ("SAC") named a number of Doe Defendants, and 23 the TAC appears to allege that the newly named defendants are substitutions for the Does (see 24 Dkt. No. 60 at 2), the general rule that "a plaintiff who names a Doe defendant in his complaint 25 and alleges that the defendant's true name is unknown has three years from the commencement of 26 the action in which to discover the identity of the Doe defendant, to amend the complaint 27 accordingly" Lindley v. Gen. Elec. Co., 780 F.2d 797, 800-01 (9th Cir. 1986) (citing Cal. Civ.
28 Proc. Code §§ 474, 581a, the predecessor statute to the current § 583.210, which is virtually

1 identical), does not apply. First, six of the ten newly-added defendants were already identified by 2 name in earlier iterations of the complaint. Second, Plaintiffs did not allege in the SAC that the 3 Doe Defendants' identities were unknown. Moreover, the SAC, while it named Doe Defendants, 4 brought the causes of action solely against the City of Oakland. The Court's Order granting leave
5 to amend therefore permitted Plaintiff to amend the claims only against the City.

6 Accordingly, the Court dismisses the new Section 1986 claim and all of the new individual
7 defendants without leave to amend. Defendant need only respond to the Third Amended 8 Complaint as if it did not include such allegations. Defendant's answer or other response shall be 9 filed on or before February 25, 2016. In light of the parties' representations at the hearing on the 10 motion for judgment on the pleadings regarding the futility of mediation until the pleadings are 11 set, the Court finds good cause to vacate the mediation deadline and therefore GRANTS
12 Defendant's request.

13 IT IS SO ORDERED.
